Dear Mrs. Manley:

You are probably acquainted with my magazine articles on colored people. I believe I can place a Negro baseball article with one of the largest national picture magazines and have been told you are interested in this type of publicity. I have one offer from an American Negro baseball owner to publicize his club by such an article. However our mutual friends tell me you are very photogenic and might be interested in such a piece.

In the event you are interested and we can get together on price for such an article I am sure you will receive more publicity in this one piece than ever before. I cover the sport world for the Pittsburgh Courier and will be in the press box at the Polo Grounds Sunday.

You might check with Frank Forbes and Gum Posey on my ability to place the article.

Yours very truly,
Haskell Cohen
